

The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, July 28. 1703

From the Harlem Courant, dated August 4.

Vienna, July 21.

THere is a talk now that Prince Eugene of Savoy will not go into the Field this Campaign. Yesterday the Prince of Saxe Zeyts, Bishop of Raab, arriv'd here from Cologne. Preparations are making for the speedy Departure of the Arch-Duke Charles for Portugal; The Duke of Moles and the Prince of Lichtenstein will accompany him; the latter in Quality of the Emperor's Envoy. Letters from Hungary say, that Prince Ragozzi is retir'd into Poland.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated August 4.

Vienna, July 21. Some of our Ministers advis'd, that the Arch-Duke, conformably to the Representation made by the Neapolitan Noblemen (mention'd in our former) should go to Trieste, and from thence with the English and Dutch Fleet to the Kingdom of Naples; but it has been finally determin'd that that Prince shall set out for Portugal next Month, and 'tis said he will first be proclaim'd King of Spain. Letters out of Hungary say, that a Body of 600 Tarrars had appear'd, having a Design to joyn the Rebels; but that it was not doubted the Regiment of Montecuculi would give a good Account both of the one and the other.

From the Harlem Courant, dated August 4.

Munich, July 25. On the 20th 4000 Peasants of Tyrol, attack'd the Bavarian Garrison in Scharnitz consisting of about 140 Men, part Militia part Regular Troops, and having overpower'd them put them all to the Sword. Yesterday several hundred Men, Hussars and others, were commanded to march from hence towards Scharnitz, to endeavour to recover that Post. A few days ago about 700 Peasants of Tyrol that had been taken Prisoners, were carried to Burghausen and from thence to Scharndingen. P.S. Advice is come, that our Elector's Troops have retaken Scharnitz.

From the Head Quarters of the Imperialists commanded by Prince Lewis of Baden, encamp'd at Haunshym, July 24. Deserters from the Enemy report, that the Elector of Bavaria is shortly expected in the French Army: The Redoubts made to secure our Camp are compleatly finish'd: And the Enemies work hard on their Retrenchments. Their number lessens daily, a great many dying of Sickness. Yesterday some of our Officers and Volunteers advanced towards the Enemies, whereupon 12 of their Squadrons came out, and a few Shot were exchanged, by which some were wounded on both sides. As soon as the Prussian Troops commanded by the Prince of Anhalt Dessau are arriv'd, the Prince our General designs to pass the Danube.

From the Camp at Stohlhoffen, July 27. The Duke of Burgundy continues encamp'd at Wilsted; the 10 Battallions he left at Fort Louis continue there likewise.

Heilbron, July 28. 2000 French and Bavarians are come out of Ulm, and have taken Castle belonging to Count Stirum call'd Iller Eichen, in order to keep open the Passage between Ulm and Memmingen.

Frankfort, July 29. The Count of Nassau Weilburg is gone from hence to the Camp at Stohlhoffen. General Hockkirchen with the Troops of the Circle of Westphalia, has joyn'd General Thungen at Stohlhoffen. The Bavarian Troops that lye about Amberg, are drawing together with design to relieve Rotenburg.

Liege, July 31. The Governours of Namur and Huy, particularly the latter, have receiv'd Orders from the Court of France, to strengthen their Fortifications as much as is possible; accordingly 3000 Men of the Garrison of Huy are working on theirs. That Garrison consists of 5 Battallions and is commanded by Monsieur Ximenes. That of Limburg has seiz'd another Mail coming hither.

Private Letters from Holland advise, that the Burghers of Amersfort, having lately turn'd out their ancient Magistrates, and set up others in their stead, tumultuously, and without the Participation or Consent of the States of the Province of Utrecht, the said States thought good after due Deliberation, to issue out a Placard on the 21st of July N. S. in which they declar'd the Proceedings of the Burghers of Amersfort in making Alterations in the Magistracy of their Town, to be illegal, and null; commanded them to restore the ancient Magistrates to their Offices; and promis'd that if any ill Practices had crept into the Administration of the Affairs of the said Town, since the Year 1672, (as was alledg'd by the Burghers in their own Justification,) they should be redress'd; and that the Magistracy should be put upon the same foot on which it stood from the Year 1651 to 1672 (which was all the Burghers seem'd at first to contend for.) They likewise offer'd a general Amnesty for what had pass'd, to all that should pay a ready Obedience to the said Placard. But this cool Method not producing the desir'd Effect, the States of Utrecht order'd a Regiment of Foot and another of Dragoons to march towards Amersfort, to compel the Factious Burghers to Obedience, and make them submit to Authority. On notice of which the Burghers made fast the Gates of their Town, imprison'd the Burgomasters van Duren, Tekman, Both, and 5 or 6 other Persons, (some of them of the old Magistracy and some of the New,) in the Town-House, and threaten'd to put them to Death in case those 2 Regiments should advance near their Walls. Hereupon the States of Utrecht, unwilling to proceed to Extremities, and yet resolving to maintain the Sovereignty of the Province, sent a Drummer into the Town to offer an Amnesty once more, a few Persons (the Ringleaders of the Sedition) being excepted; but the mad Multitude rejected it, clap'd up the rest of the Magistrates that had not fled out of the Town, (as several did, among them Burgomaster Thins :) And in defiance to the States planted their Colours on their Ramparts. This oblig'd the States to send a Deputy to Amsterdam (where he arriv'd on the 2d of August) to desire the Burgomasters masters of that City to furnish them with 6 pieces of Cannon, to be employ'd against Amersford; and their Troops have already secur'd the Avenues to that Place.

The abovemention'd Placard of the States of Utrecht, will be insert'd at length in the next Monthly Register, which will be publish'd in a few days.

London, July 28. Sir Robert Marsham of Kent died on Sunday last.

There will be publish'd in a little Time.

AN Abridgment of the Acta Eruditorum Lipsie, wherein shall be presented to the World a compleat Account of all the valuable Learning both Natural and Civil contained therein. With several Cuts and Figures. And will be printed for D. Midwinter and T. Leigh at the Rose and Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard.

THere is in the Press, and will be speedily publish'd, A General Treatise of Trade and Commerce, fuller and more exact than any yet extant, giving a particular Account of all the valuable Commodities of the principal places of Europe and other parts of the World, with their Weights, Measures, and current Coins; also many useful and necessary Remarks upon the Course of Exchange through Europe. Written by S. Ricard, publish'd at Amsterdam 1700, done into English with many additional Remarks by the Translator. And a Treatise of the Reduction of the Exchange and Coins of most places of Trade in Europe, very exactly computed, and divided into 2 Tables. By Henry des Aguliers. Printed last Year with the Approbation and privilege of the States of Holland and West-Friesland, and translated and improv'd by the same Hand. Printed for R. Smith under the Royal Exchange, London.

THE Way to get Wealth by making 23 Sorts of Wine equal to French, Syder equal to Canary: To make Mead, Mum, Coffee, Tea, Chocolate, cordial Waters, and 40 sorts of Ale: To remember all you read, Accounts ready cast up, and to keep Account-Books; to write Letters to Chapmen, compound Debts, Letters of License and divers things Traders ought to know. To make a Strop to set Razors as well as a Hone. A Garment that will keep out the most violent Rain. Rates of Car, Coach and Watermen, &c. 1000 notable Things, to make people look young and handsome; curious physical Receipts. Jest, Stories, Riddles, Moles, Gardning, Fowling, Vermin-killing, to live 100 Years, speak Languages quickly. The way to save Wealth, or to live for 2 d. a day, save Coals, Candles, Shoes-Leather. Where Coaches, Waggon and Carriers Inn, and divers other matters, by the Author of the true Art of Angling. Arts Master-piece, compleat Bee-master. Also the French Perfumer. Gilbert's Florist's Vade Mecum. English Gardner. At the Ring in Little-Brittain. price 1 s. 6 d.

WHereas the Gutta Serena, vulgarly call'd a black Cataract, being a Distemper by most people thought Incurable, these people following have been lately cured of the said Distemper by Dr. Read the Approved Occulist, Mr. Francis Deacon at Mr. Perry's a Tobacco-Merchant in Leaden-Hall-street, Mr. Spence in Chelsea-College, Mr. Wilby at Chiselmurst near Bromly in Kent, Mr. Lovelock of Hungerford, Mr. Hilliard of Forburg, Mr. Usher of Senn, all three in Wiltshire; Mr. Brefford of Milberton near Taunton in Devon, and many others. Besides 2000 of Cataracts within a few Years. Likewise Mrs. Ellen Jones of Black-Friers Blind a considerable time of both Eyes. And several of Albugo's and other Distempers of the Eyes, as appears by his ample Testimonials from our Famous Universities at home, and others abroad, which is matter of Fact.

On Monday next will be publish'd, THE Life of James II. late King of England, containing his Birth, Education, Religion and Enterprizes, at home and abroad, while in a private and publick Capacity till his Dethronement. With the various Struggles made since for his Restoration, the State of his Court at St. Germain's, and the particulars of his Death; intermix'd with many Original Papers, Debates, Letters, Declarations, &c. illustrated with several Medals. The second Edition, much enlarg'd, with a Supplement of curious Memoires, viz. The Lord Peterborough's account of his Negotiations for a Match between that King and several Princess's of Germany, France, &c. and at last concluding it with the Princess of Modena. His Instructions, &c. Expedients design'd to be offer'd at Oxon in lieu of the Bill of Exclusion. An Account of the Business about the Irish rising to cut Throats, 1688. The Dissertation discuss'd by Mr. C---y. A Letter to a Member of the Convention by Dr. Sh---k, and many others. Printed for J. Knapton in St. Paul's Church-yard, J. Nicholson, J. Sprint and T. Ballard, in Little-Brittain. price 6 s. Where may be had the Life of King William in one Volume 8°. price 6 s.

ADVERTISEMENT.

A Sermon preach'd at the Funeral of the Right Honourable Dorothea Helena, Countess Dowager of Derby, at the Parish-Church of Ormskirk in Lancashire, on Friday the 16th of April 1703. By Richard Hunter, A. M. Printed for A. and J. Churchill at the Black Swan in Pater-Noster-Row.

AN Exact Abridgment of all the Tryals, not omitting any material Passage therein, relating to High Treason, Pyracies, &c. in the Reigns of the late King William III. of Glorious Memory, and of our present Gracious Sovereign Queen Anne. Together with their Dying Speeches; as also the Dying Speeches of several Persons in the Reigns of King Charles II. and King James II. Printed for J. Robinson and J. Wyat in St. Paul's Church-yard.

A Defence of the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Sarum. In Answer to a Book, Intituled A Prefatory Discourse to an Examination of the Bishop of Sarum's Exposition of the Thirty nine Articles of the Church of England. Sold by A. Baldwin near the Oxford-Arms in Warwick-lane.

THE 2d part of Ecclesiastical cases relating to the Exercise of Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction as far as it is allow'd by Law. To which are added, Two Speeches in the House of Lords, 1st. The case of Exeter-College in Oxford. 2d. The case of Commendams. With a Discourse of the true Antiquity of London, and its State in the Roman Times. By the Right Reverend Edward Stillingfleet, D. D. late Lord Bishop of Worcester. Sold by H. Mortlock at the Phoenix in St. Paul's Church-yard. Where the first part is also Sold.

Pious Instructions, which were found hanging up in a black Ebony Frame, written in Gold, in King Charles the First's Closet soon after his Death 1648, neatly printed upon a Broad-side with His Majesty's Picture, to be put into Frames. Sold by Geo. Sawbridge in Little-Brittain. price 6 d.

A Journey from Aleppo to Jerusalem at Easter, A. D. 1697. By Henry Maundrell, M. A. late Fellow of Exeter College, and Chaplain to the Factory at Aleppo. Oxford, Printed at the Theatre, and Sold by Tho. Bennet at the Half Moon in St. Paul's Church-yard.

AMores Britannici. Epistles Historical and Gallant, in English Heroick Verse. From several of the most Illustrious Personages of their Times. In Imitation of the Heroidum Epistole of Ovid. With Notes explaining the most material passages in every History. Sold by John Nutt near Stationers-Hall.